Christian Festivals

	What happens?	Why?
Christmas	Christians celebrate the birth of Jesus. Many attend church services, sing carols, give gifts, and set up nativity scenes showing Mary, Joseph, baby Jesus, shepherds, and angels.	Christmas is celebrated because Christians believe Jesus is the Son of God, sent by God to save humanity. His birth shows God coming into the world as a human.
Easter	Christians remember the death and resurrection of Jesus. Churches hold special services on Good Friday and Easter Sunday. Some Christians fast, pray, and celebrate with Easter eggs.	Easter is important because Christians believe Jesus died to forgive sins and rose from the dead, proving he defeated death and offers eternal life.

Who was Guru Nanak?

Guru Nanak founded the religion Sikhi in the Punjab region of India. From a young age he was seen as unusual because of special events and his kind behaviour. Stories tell of a cobra protecting him from the sun, him giving his market profits to the poor, and disappearing in a river for three days before returning and saying he had seen God. These events made people believe he was chosen by God and very different from others. He went onto to teach others – Guru means teacher and these people became known as Sikhs – learners.
